

TURNKEY DUPED BY PRISONER, WHO ESCAPES FROM JAIL

Julius Tillery, Serving Term for Moonshining, Escapes from Local Jail Through Main Doorway As Turnkey Answers Call.

Julius Tillery, colored, serving a term of thirty days and a fine of one hundred dollars and costs, escaped from the Mason county jail Thursday night at about 10:30 o'clock using a very slick method of getting Turnkey Gaskins out of his way.

Tillery on Thursday served out his jail sentence and had said he was going to pay out the one hundred dollar fine Friday. The grand jury a few days ago returned an indictment against him for cutting and wounding with intent to kill and the returning of this indictment seemed to cause him much worry as he had expected to gain his freedom Friday.

The prisoner had been sick for some time and had been taking a course of medicine prescribed by the jail physician. At about 10:30 o'clock Thursday night he called Turnkey Tom Gaskins asking him to bring him some medicine. The turnkey left the office unoccupied and entered the jail through the "Z" door, which cannot be locked from the inside. All of the prisoners on both floors were locked in the "Bull Pen" and the turnkey thought there was no danger. When he reached the second floor "Bull Pen" where Tillery was thought to be locked up, he found the pen unlocked and Tillery gone.

The officer thinks that after the prisoner called to him, he left the second floor and hid himself in the main corridor so that when the officer passed through the corridor on his way to the second floor, he slipped through the "Z" door and into the office and clear of the jail.

A search was made Thursday night and Friday but no trace of the missing man was found. Jailor Wheeler offers a reward of twenty-five dollars for the arrest and return of Tillery.

WATER COMPANY MUST ABIDE BY CONTRACT

Fire Hydrants Ordered Installed and Public Water Troughs Ordered Re-paired—Quiet Session of Council.

The regular semi-monthly session of City Council held at the council chamber Thursday evening was a very quiet affair and little important business aside from the regular routine business was transacted.

A communication from the Mayville Water Company submitting prices on the installation of fire hydrants. Council discussed the matter freely and decided to call the attention of the water company that in their franchise there was a contract price on fire hydrants. After a thorough discussion Council ordered certain hydrants installed at the contract price and also ordered the water company to repair the public watering troughs in the city.

It developed that the required number of citizens in the Sixth ward had agreed to install water to guarantee six per cent. on the investment for the laying of a water main and the Council ordered the water company to lay such main.

The new traffic ordinance was placed on its second reading and final adoption and a thousand dollars in emergency bonds were ordered issued.

AMERICAN MARINES LANDED AT SMYRNA TO GIVE PROTECTION

Americans To Be Protected Against Violent Turks as They Near Little Port on the Aegean Sea Shore.

Constantinople, Sept. 8.—American marines have landed at Smyrna and are taking steps to protect United States citizens as the Turkish National army, driving the defeated Greeks before it, nears the city, according to reports reaching here today.

Greek authorities are said to have informed the allies they are unable to guarantee the safety of foreigners in Smyrna when the routed Greek army reached the city.

American and allied detachments disembarked to guard the consulates. The victorious Turks under Mustafa Kemal had pushed forward to within 20 miles of Smyrna at latest reports, and had broken through the last weak defense and reached the Aegean Sea.

The Greek army, routed, was retreating upon Smyrna, accompanied by thousands of refugees. Dangerous congestion, with spread of disease and famine, is feared in Smyrna.

BAND COMPLIMENTED BY FAIR MANAGEMENT OF LOUISA

Centennial Association in Charge of Louisiana Celebration Have Splendid Compliment for Cardinal Band.

The following letter has been received by Colonel Russell:

"Dear Mr. Russell: We wanted to keep your boys a day longer than we originally planned, but owing to the railroad situation find it impossible, and are compelled to let them go back to you this morning. Mr. Hendrickson, and Mr. and Mrs. Glascock have all enjoyed the trip, I am sure; and we have been happy indeed to have had them with us.

"In bringing your band to our centennial, we had in mind a purpose to show our people just what the business men of Mayville by a united effort have made possible, and at the same time, provide an inspiration to the youth of our country; but now, as we look back over the week that has passed, we know, beyond the hope of expressing it in words, that the greatest thing of all has been the wonderful music they have played, in a way that will live in our memories always.

"You have a great director in George D. Barnard. We know you are proud of him and proud of your band; and we are proud with you—proud that we may say that we have had them with us during an unforgettable week. We all hope for their return. Sincerely yours, CLYDE L. MILLER, Manager Centennial Association."

LEWIS COUNTY DEPUTY SHERIFF IS AMBUSHED

Lewis County Official Is Shot at From Behind Passing Freight Train.

Garrison, Ky. — Thursday about 9 p. m. some unknown person fired a shot at L. D. McCashey, deputy sheriff, who is doing guard duty for the C. & O. at the pump house here. Mr. McCashey and Wm. Skidmore were sitting on a bench just outside the pump house and Henry Waring was sitting on a wheelbarrow nearby. A train was passing and the shot was fired from beyond the far side of the train. They saw the flash of the gun but were unable to tell who used it, because the train obstructed their view. The bullet lodged in the wall of the pump house near McCashey's head.

It is supposed the gunman was some one who "had it in" for McCashey because of his work in pursuing violators of the prohibition laws. Mr. McCashey got in touch with Sheriff Lykins and tried to get bloodhounds in order to trace the gunman but found it impossible to get them.

REWEDES WIEE TO CARE FOR HER IN AT- TEMPT TO GET WELL

Former Mayville Attorney and His Divorced Wife are Re-United When Wife Is Advised to Seek Health in the West.

A Chicago news dispatch says:

Because his former wife had been advised to go to California to recover from her illness and because she needed some one to take care of her while she recovered, Moses A. Ruggles, St. Louis, attorney, today remarried her.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Ruggles are 57 years old. They were divorced in 1921 at Dayton, Ohio, where Mrs. Ruggles has been living since.

"When we reach California I'm going to start in the law business there while my wife regains her health," Mr. Ruggles told Louis Geomer, marriage license clerk. The ceremony was performed by Judge H. Sterling Pomeroy.

Moses A. Ruggles will be well remembered by many Mayvillians. He is a native of the Tollesboro neighborhood and taught schools over this district for years. He practiced law in Mayville for many years and later went to Southern Kentucky where he formed a partnership with Senator A. O. Stanley in the practice of law.

HOT WAVE TO CONTINUE.

DROUGHT BROKEN IN ALL PARTS OF STATE

Late Crops Begin to Show Decided Improvement as a Result of Recent Rains.

Summary of weather and crop conditions in Kentucky for the week ending Tuesday, September 5, 1922, follows:

Moderate to heavy rainfall in the northeastern counties, following good rains in the previous week, practically broke the drought in that section. Late crops show considerable improvement, the condition of late corn and tobacco in that district ranging from fair to good. Stock water has been replenished, and pastures are reviving. Only light scattered showers occurred in most of the central and western portions of the state, where the drought continues, and was intensified by the unseasonably high temperature. In those districts late corn and tobacco are scarcely growing and are in poor condition, especially in the hilly region. Pastures continue short and dry, and feeding of stock has been resorted to in places. Early corn is drying rapidly, and the quality of the grain is good. Cutting has commenced in the southern counties. Most early tobacco has been cut and housed, somewhat earlier than usual because of "drying" and premature ripening due to drought. In most of state weather conditions were favorable for speedy curing and good quality of leaf; but the yield is much reduced on account of drought damage. Fall plowing is beginning in the northeast counties, where the soil was softened by heavy rains. Very little plowing has been done in the remainder of the state, where the soil is generally too dry to be worked. The late sown cowpeas will be benefited by the rains in the eastern counties, but in general this crop has been seriously damaged by the dry weather. Late potatoes improved and are growing fairly well in most of the eastern half of the state; but they are in a critical condition in the western half. Some young clover has been killed by drought. The fourth crop of alfalfa is about ready to cut, but the yield will be short. Rain is badly needed in central and western districts.

SPORTS

An introduction worthy of mention as well as interesting to all golf enthusiasts of Edgely country club is the use of the "low price" golf ball which has been tested thoroughly and found to uphold its guarantee not to cut, even with an iron, besides being capable of all the tricks of the regulation ball.

Through the courtesy of the Faultless Rubber Company, manufacturers of "Weaver" (20 cents) and "Fast Flight" (10 cents) practice balls we distributed a dozen of the former among different members who report them satisfactory. On Wednesday morning one of these pellets was shot around the nine hole course in 47.

TEACHING OF THE LAW OF GOD,
Sept. 10. — Neh. 8:1-18.

A General Religious Awakening. — Verse 1. We have here a typical old-time, general awakening; and as the general principles and specific requirements which condition a genuine revival of religion are the same in all ages, we may learn valuable lessons for our work today from this interesting account of an ancient season of grace to the Jewish people. The people were aroused with religious interest and enthusiasm. They assembled near the temple and don't you know that when people begin to hang around the church generally something will happen. Well it is inspiring to the preacher to see them coming and he began to scratch his head and did out a new sermon because he sees the people are spiritually hungry. Let us say this too that empty pews are a dishonor to God for he says for us to go out into the highways and hedges and compel them to come in. An empty pew by your side is a challenge to you, my friend! How much going out and compelling have you done? These folks got busy and the result was a great religious revival.

There was a prevailing eagerness among the people to have the Word of God read to them. Tired of fables, tired of inventions of men they hungered for words behind which was the authority of an eternal God. When the simple, plain, pungent, gospel message is reverently received and given serious consideration, its quickening power at once is evident. Hear it, O ye perishing soul. It is quick and powerful. It is the power of God unto salvation. Can Maysville be indifferent to this Word? Rally Day is upon us and let us rally to the Sunday school. Let us rally to the church and prayer meeting. Let us rally to the Word of our God. Let us rally to secret prayer for a great revival in Maysville.

What Produced this Change.—Think back awhile over what Israel has endured. Affliction, national humiliation, and general distress came upon a people that were proud of their aristocracy, blue blood, etc. The discipline of affliction came upon them and continued long after their release and return to the home land. By this rigorous, but righteous discipline, this suffering people was brought in deep penitence to the only and all-sufficient consolation of Israel. Thus the ministry of suffering is blessed! Again the divine blessing is bestowed upon faithful service. The efforts of many years performed by Ezra who was faithful to his holy office are no wretchedly rewarded. Think of the joy that must have come to him as he sees his prayers answered. God is feeding His children.

Divinely Blest Capable Leadership. — So as the day demands, providence exalts to leadership capable and consecrated servants, like Ezra at this time and others in later times.

The Quickening Power of Divine Truth. — Ezra put great honor upon the Word of God, so still we must preach the word. Then young and old alike will catch the spirit of the message, and if sovereign grace prevail, if the people yield to the gracious influences of the auspicious hour, angels will tune their harps to higher harmonies as they look down with delight upon a church enjoying a glorious general awakening.

"Holy Bible, book Divine,
Precious treasure, thou art mine;
Mine to tell me whence I came,
Mine to teach me what I am,
Mine to guide me when I rove,
Mine to show a Savior's love."

No greater moral change ever passed over a nation than passed over England during the years of Queen Elizabeth's reign. England became the people of the Book of Books. The Bible, its literary and social effects were great, still more great was the effect upon the people at large, for new conceptions of life and a new moral and religious impulse spread through every class of society.

"Revive us again, fill each heart with thy praise,
May each soul be rekindled with fire from above."

GEORGIA FOR FORESTRY.

More states are getting at the facts in regard to the forestry situation and the importance of forest products to our economic life. As a result of the activities of the Georgia Forestry Committee appointed a year and a half ago by the Southern Forestry Congress, the state of Georgia has recently joined the list of some twenty-eight other states in which forestry associations are working to perpetuate our forests.

At a meeting held in Macon a permanent Georgia Forestry Association was organized and began work at once to organize the state in support of a constructive forest policy. The new association hopes that by gathering together the widespread forestry sentiment which exists throughout the state it will be able to obtain, this summer, legislation which will form the first and basic essentials of a strong state forestry department.

In point of accomplishment, the Macon meeting was one of the most important forestry meetings held in the South during the past year, according to a review of the meeting by the American Forestry Association, which calls on every state to take action. It not only resulted in the formation of a strong forestry association, but it awakened the state to the seriousness of forest depletion as an economic menace of its future prosperity and development. Governor Thomas W. Hardwick has become fully yaliva to the situation and in a direct and clear-cut address at the Macon meeting sounded the key note of the movement to perpetuate the forests and the forest industries of Georgia.

CAMPERS AND FIRE.

This is the time of year when forest fires take their annual toll valued at millions of dollars, says the American Forestry Association, which warns the tourist and the camper never to leave a spark burning. The association points out that twenty per cent. of all the forest fires started by man in the National Forests of the West during 1921 were caused by tobacco smokers. In California, Arizona, and New Mexico, one out of every four forest fires due to human agencies was started by burning cigarettes, cigars, matches or pipe heels carelessly thrown aside by smokers while in the woods.

CARDINALS ARE BLANKED BY THE WINCHESTER CLUB

Blakelyfield Unable to Make Showing Against Winchester Team in Thursday's Game—Worst Defeat Yet.

Winchester, Ky., Sept. 7.—Winchester defeated Mayville here today in a one-sided game by the score of 12 to 0. Blakelyfield, who started for Mayville, lasted but one inning. He was hit for two doubles and two singles, resulting in three runs.

Hurst, who took the mound in the second round, fared but little better, as he was nipped for 11 hits accounting for nine runs. Extra base clotting was the order of the day, a home run by Devereaux, six triples and four doubles, besides four hits of the one base variety, being secured by Winchester. Hisle led in the batting attack of the Dodgers, getting two triples and a single.

Harding, on the hill for Winchester, was master throughout, holding the Cardinals to four scattered hits and sending ten men back to the bench via the strikeout route. The box score follows:

Notes.
Shaw was not long breaking into the Studebaker lineup. He departed from there Thursday morning and played right field at Cynthiana that afternoon. He was very much in the limelight with one hit in three times, scoring a run and stealing a base also having a put out. He is slated to work against Mt. Sterling Friday in Lexington in a postponed game. Harrison will oppose him.

The Cards used a pitcher against Winchester Thursday that no one seem to know they had. It is Hurst who has been with Lexington and Paris. He relieved Blakelyfield in the second inning.

Harry Bell, former Card, did his part in helping the Dodgers to their victory. He collected two hits and two runs.

The Cardinals are scheduled to appear at Cynthiana Friday in an exhibition game. The Cynthiana fans certainly do not demand much in the way of an exhibition after the poor showing of the Cards in most of their recent games.

THIEVES TO HAVE MUSIC.

Barzina broke into the Alexandria, Ky., general store, operated by J. B. and C. H. Youtsey, about 15 miles south of Newport, early Friday, and carried away stock valued at $400. ### ELOPEMENT OF MISS SHUSTER IS SUSPECTED Police of Kentucky Cities Asked to Search for Daughter of Wealthy Publisher Believed to Have Eloped With Kentuckian.

Glasgow, Ky., Sept. 7.—Police in all cities of Kentucky, Indiana and Tennessee tonight were searching for Miss Carolyn Shuster, pretty eighteen-year-old daughter of W. Morgan Shuster, president of the Century Publishing Company, New York, who is believed to have eloped from the home of her grandmother here last night with William Morris, son of a merchant.

Immediately after the girl's disappearance was noted members of her family offered a reward for her return unmarried. Miss Shuster, in company with her mother, had been visiting her grandmother, Mrs. H. C. Trigg. A short time ago it was noticed that she devoted much of her time to Morris and, it was reported, she planned to elope with him last Thursday.

The plan was frustrated by members of her family. It is said, and Morris was ordered away from the home. Mrs. Shuster then planned to leave today for Orange, N. J., where her two daughters were to resume their studies in a fashionable girls' school.

Last night a number of young folk called to say good-bye to the family and when they returned to Glasgow Miss Shuster accompanied them. It is said that later she was seen entering an automobile with Morris and two other men. When she failed to return two hours later, Mrs. Shuster notified police.

The two other men today refused to answer questions in regard to Miss Shuster's disappearance, but their talk, it was said, indicated that she was married. It is believed that they drove the couple to Cave City, where they obtained a smaller car and continued their trip toward Nashville.

PROMINENT SCOTT COUNT- IANS ARE ARRESTED

Prominent Citizens of Georgetown Are Charged With Having Taken Part in Mob Which Whipped Man.

Georgetown, Ky., Sept. 7.—Charging "taking part in mob" to do violence to Jack Eaton, circus employee, warrants were served today on four prominent residents of this city, who it is alleged, horsewhipped Eaton the night of August 28, after he had been released from jail.

They are Johnson Askew, farmer, Robert C. Davis, lumber dealer, Lewis Finley, former circuit clerk, and James L. Carrick, farmer and race horse breeder.

The formal charges followed an investigation made by Sheriff Ollie McFarland and Ora Slater, of the Cal Crim detective agency, of Cincinnati.

Accused by exaggerated reports of attack, feeling has been running high and the officials were urged to investigate by a number of citizens, although Eaton has never made any charges and has never appeared in Georgetown since the incident.

Although his bare back was beaten, no blood was drawn and no turpentine was applied, Eaton told a Georgetown man who conducted an independent investigation, over the long distance telephone from his home at 5747 Hobart avenue, Detroit. Eaton said he would be willing to meet a committee of citizens interested in prosecuting the case, in Cincinnati, Lexington, or some other nearby city, and would be willing to return to Georgetown to testify if the case comes to trial, provided he is "guaranteed protection."

PARIS WINS KITTY FLAG.
